9. Art Group: the teacher is unavailable due to ill health. The exhibition is 7th-13th July.
10. Village Show 6th September: the schedule was issued and comments invited. Judges are confirmed, except for fruit and vegetables. Jenny has this in hand. We may be able All to apply for a £50 grant to cover prizes for children's entries.
11. Lottery: we have 78 members; prizes are £50, £28, £20. From the lottery, the village hall has received £501.50, the church £400. Membership is four down on last year. The first draw will be Thursday, 8th June and will be announced on the Website.
12. Church: Dan Walker of Channel Four will be at the church on 8th July, making a documentary about the Gunpowder Plotters. Jean, Gill and Pat will clean at the Church on Jean, Gill, Pat Friday in preparation.
13. AOB: Gerry – a) the Parish Council are reviewing the Village Emergency Plan and members agreed that the village hall would be the first place of safety; with the Church All as second. The Trustees would act as volunteers in the event of an emergency, ie provide cups of tea, reassurance and members agreed to do so. The Emergency Services would be responsible for safety. b) Net Zero – Gerry is waiting for a response from a feasibility study group in Sheriff Hutton, using the grant of £46,000 – members need to put forward their personal skills to assist the project. c) Gerry was thanked for obtaining the grant for the new boilers. Jackie – one light is out and there are some starters under the sink. d) Sue, Gerry there has been some anti-social behaviour by children, reported by Gemma at the School House. d) Sue is preparing posters for the Bingo and Gerry will print A4 notices.

15. Date of next meeting: Monday, 30th June, 2025, 7pm.
